“ I remember Mr. Mlynar as witty and warm and very much a presence in our formative years—you didn't see a lot of dads taking such active roles in their children's lives back then. I often thought how great it would be to have a father like him. I'm sad to hear of his passing, and at the same time I think how lucky his children are to have had him for all of those years.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Arhtur will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Arthur again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Arthur seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
