

Arthur D. "Art" Partain

July 20, 1940 - October 2, 2022

Partain, Arthur D. "Art", July 20, 1940, entered into Eternal Life October 2, 2022. Beloved Husband of Mable. Loving Father of Arthur A. (Davalyn) Partain. Proud Grandfather of Arthur Jon "A.J.", Liana Grace, Talia Rose. Brother-in-law of Drew (Rosemary) Crossett. Uncle to Andrea (Les) Himebrook, Andrew Himebrook, John Himebrook, Edie (Brad) Dutton, Kate Dutton, David Dutton, David (Sherri) Adams, Christopher (Katie) Adams. Art was a graduate (Accounting, Industrial Management) of Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas. Art was employed by Ford Motor Company for 35 years in supervision: Wayne Assembly Plant and Michigan Truck Plant. As a member of Ward Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Art believed in ever-lasting life in Christ Jesus. Art enjoyed building furniture, wood working, duplicate bridge. Most importantly he loved each of the people he knew. He was a true friend. Art never met a stranger. He loved to give hugs, to banter and tease. Visitation Thursday, October 20th 4 PM – 8:30 PM at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 Ann Arbor Road West (between Sheldon & Beck), Plymouth, Michigan 48170. Gathering of family and friends Friday, October 21st 10 AM until the 11 AM Memorial Service Celebration of Life in Christ at Ward Evangelical Presbyterian Church Chapel, Door No. 2, 40000 Six Mile Road. Northville, Michigan 48168.

Because Art lived his whole life loving and caring for others, in lieu of flowers please donate to your place of worship or the charity of your choice. To share a memory, please use the share a memory tab on this webpage.

“ Art was one of the finest persons I have known, he and his wife were there for us for over 52 years. He will be greatly missed. His sense of humor and his broad smiles.
