Hamlin, Audrey C. age 77 of Plymouth, October 23, 2007. Beloved wife of Merle. Dear mother of Duane, Cynthia (Everett) Smith, and Kimberlee Bertrand. Loving grandmother of five. Dear sister of Gerald and David Swain.

Audrey has lived in the Plymouth area all her life. She graduated from Plymouth High School. In 1969 Audrey Hamlin and her mother Morie Swain purchased Kemnitz Fine Candies and Gifts located in downtown Plymouth. She was a proud owner of a very successful candy store. Audrey was a strong person who constantly strove for her personal best. She raised three successful children who went on themselves to raise a total of five grandchildren, all of who greatly appreciate Audrey and all she provided.

Audrey enjoyed many experiences including camping trips at Higgins Lake in Michigan, to traveling down Germany's Rhine River and all in between. She especially enjoyed traveling the lesser used roads to see the beautiful landscapes including lakes, oceans and sunsets. She has been a Nazarene for 70 years. Her involvement in the church was a significant piece of her life, which was easily demonstrated by the many years she spent teaching Sunday School and her position as the Young Peoples President at Plymouth Church of the Nazarene.
