“ Dear Jerry and Family,

My heart was so saddened when I learned the news of Barb's passing. She was one of the finest ladies I have ever known. Always looked forward to her sweet smile and her welcoming way. She personified courage and strength, as she fought her battles. I admired and respected her so very much. She will be, sorely, missed. But, oh, what a glorious homecoming there was when she arrived at Heaven's door! And, oh, how wonderful the words she heard from her Jesus, "Well done, sweet daughter of mine, well done!" My prayers will be lifted to God for comfort, as you walk this grief road. And may all your memories of this fine lady guide you from mourning to morning. For she is, indeed, dancing in the sunshine.....love to all,

Judy Baldwin

“ Sharon and I have known Barbara since our kids were starting grade school and Sharon met her in High School. We remained good friends for all of the following years. She was a special lady, mother and wife and servant of the Lord. When we returned to Michigan for visits we always looked forward to seeing her smile and warm greeting. She will be missed.
