“ I remember Barbara very well from St Hedwig High (1965). Always pleasant and friendly. Met her the last time at the 50-year class reunion and I'm so sad to hear she has past away. I will offer a prayer in her memory and her grieving family.

“ The first thing you noticed about Barb was her beautiful green eyes and radiant smile. She had a warm friendly personality that made her easy to like from the moment you meet her. I remember her planning their wedding and dieting to slim down not for the wedding dress but for the bikini she wanted to wear on their honeymoon. She and Ralph were so obviously in love. They borrowed our car for their honeymoon and went to the Pocono mountains. They didn't like it at all so they drove all the way to Miami and had a much better time. She had a boy who looked like Dad and a girl who looked like Mom. She and Ralph worked together in everything to build family and home. She worked a full time job, raised two great kids, and kept a beautiful home for her family. She was a great cook and loved planning holidays. Family gatherings at her house with every thing decorated and wonderful food were a festive blessing to us all. She relished time for reading. She enjoyed selecting polish pottery for the shop. She always praised her kids and the and the support they were to her life. She loved them so much! Through all those years it was still clear that she and Ralph were so obviously in love. My favorite image is the last page in their wedding album... walking away after the reception. Her in her gown him in his tuxedo and her hand in his back pocket.
