

Barbara T. Smith

January 7, 1957 - February 9, 2024

Barbara Smith, age 67, passed away February 9, 2024 after a brief battle with cancer. She died peacefully at home surrounded by the people that she loved and that loved her the most.

Barb grew up in Ann Arbor and graduated from Huron High School. After graduating from Western Michigan University she moved to Cincinnati in 1982, where she met her husband. They raised two children and lived there until they retired to southwest Michigan in 2020.

Barb will be remembered as someone who never hurt anyone, as someone who made people laugh, and as a woman with class who cared for those who loved her more than she cared about herself. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and friend. Barb was an incredibly strong woman throughout her life as she overcame life traumas, and that strength carried her all the way to the end.

Barb enjoyed traveling around the world over the years with her husband of 40 years. In recent years, she took up beading and had started to rekindle an interest in art and drawing.

But, by far, she enjoyed her children and grandchildren the most. She loved seeing her children as good parents and longed to see her grandchildren mature into adulthood, but it was not to be. She will be sorely missed in person, but friends and family will cherish memories of her forever.

She is survived by her husband Michael, her son Evan (Lindsey) Smith and grandson Ethan, her daughter Rachel (David) Weaver and grandchildren

Emily, Thor, and Gunnar, her sisters Robyn (Don) Hutton, Stephanie (Jim) Wing, and Chris Dulgeroff, and her brother Stoyan (Nancy) Dulgeroff. She was preceded in death by her father Stoyan (Jack) Dulgeroff, her mother Dale (Baldwin) Dulgeroff, and her sister Diane (Don) McCrate and brother Michael Dulgeroff.

She is also survived by her two dogs Roxy and Tilly, who were an immense comfort to her through this ordeal.
