“ It will be nice to see Barbara again when she is raised from the dead to enjoy life on earth with us again, when God tranforms this earth in a paradise good for people to stay as Revelation 20:13 talks about the sea giving up the dead meaning the grave or the reserruction of the dead and Revelation 21:3-4 says that the tent of God will be with them or they will be under God's protection and death will be no more. Isaiah also talks about all residents will be healed and no one will say i'm sick. We look forward to seeing our beloved Barbara.

“ We were introduced to this wonderful woman when my dad, Joe Ziembrocki, decided to make her his wife. Bobbi just fit right in with our clan as if she were a part of it forever. She loved my Dad dearly: kept him in line and he in turn showered her with love, flowers and a zest for life in doing things together. She was there to comfort us when it was his time to leave this earth. Since she went into the nursing home in April of this year, I became somewhat of a best buddy and caregiver. We shared many hours together on my daily visits to her. We laughed and cried together, sometimes all at once. Bobbi was a good wife to my Dad, a proud mother, grandmother and cherished her many friends. She always had good advice for anyone who asked her even if the "asker" didn't like the response! I loved her dearly and will miss our time together, but I know her pain is gone and she is basking in the sun above with her loved ones gone before her. A poem close to my heart for her: "Remember me on quiet days. While rain drops whisper on your pane. But in your memories have no grief. Let just the joy we knew remain. Remember me when evening stars Smile down on you with quiet eyes. Remember me if once you awake To catch a glimpse of bright sunrise. Remember me when spring walks by. Think once of me when you are glad. When you are happy, so am I. And when your thoughts do turn to me, Know that I would not have you cry. But LIVE for me, and LAUGH for me, and while you LIVE, I shall not die." Love you always beautiful lady.

“ I owe a lot of who I am to my Aunt Bobbi. When I was growing up, she was always there to share her warmth, wisdom, and humor. Aunt Bobbi's home was always open for a friendly visit, tasty snack, and good card game. I will keep fond memories of her for the rest of my life.

“ Bobbi was a loving wife to my father, Joseph Zimbroski for too short of a time. They enjoyed their life together and were always "on the go". Every weekend was an adventure for them. Joe will be waiting for you in Heaven with a rose. Bobbi will be missed by so many people that loved her. To Brian, Keith and Glenn: You had the most awesome Mom and I feel fortunate for the opportunity to have her in my life. She was a proud Gramma and loved sharing stories about her grandchildren with me. May Bobbi rest in peace. She will always have a special place in my heart.
