

Beth Spring

January 14, 1932 - June 8, 2024

Beth Spring, 92, long time resident of Plymouth, MI died June 8, 2024, after a long struggle with Alzheimer's disease.

She is survived by daughters Julia and Kay (Donald), grandchildren Katherine (Dale), Daniel (Christen), Mark (Alex), and Amanda (Kimberly); along with great-grandchildren Charley, Mary, Harry and Max. She is also survived by her sister Doris McDowell of Rudyard, MI.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Herbert Spring, her parents Fred and Gertrude Dowd, and 5 siblings, Helen, Molly, Joyce, Edward, and Lora.

Beth was a registered nurse and graduate of University of Michigan, Madonna College, and Eastern Michigan. She worked for the University of Michigan Hospital for many years before retiring from the radiation therapy department.

An avid gardener, Beth's garden was an explosion of color. Beth and Herb loved to travel, and during their retirement they spent much of their time on the road, traveling around the country seeing the sights and visiting friends and family.

The family is planning to have a memorial celebration at a later date.
