BETTY BACON

May 10, 1926 – January 30, 2020

Betty Bacon of Novi, Michigan died peacefully at home on January 30, 2020. She is survived by her daughter, Linda Bacon Dillon and husband Thomas Dillon, grandchildren Nicholas Dillon and Christina Dillon of Houston, Texas; and grandchildren of the late Barbara Bacon: Parker Shaw, Paige Shaw and Piper Shaw of Marin County, California. She is preceded in death by her parents Edith and Wesley Walker; brother Robert Walker; loving husband, Frank Bacon and daughter, Barbara Bacon.

Betty graduated from Denby High School in Detroit, and then attended the Detroit Music Conservatory. She was a piano teacher and accompanist. She loved to play the piano and organ at many venues including schools, church, weddings and funerals. She loved to keep people entertained and happy at many gatherings. Betty knew how to throw a party. Betty met her husband, Frank Bacon while working at Ford Motor Company. Together they had two children, and Betty was a wonderful mother and wife.

Travel was important to her; she visited Europe, Greece, China, Mexico, Las Vegas, California, Texas and enjoyed cruises with her daughters and friends. She celebrated her 90th birthday at Miss Texas with close family where they all ate barbeque and went country western dancing and cheered for her granddaughter Christina. She loved to face time with her grandson Nick, her IT specialist. She loved to hear about her grandson Parker's athletic successes, her granddaughter Paige's ballet and Piper's Cheer competitions.

Betty will be laid to rest next to her beloved husband Frank on February 3, 2020 at 10:00 am at White Chapel Memorial Park Cemetery located at 621 W Long Lake Rd. Troy, Michigan 48098. Phone: 248-362-7670.

“ "Aunt Betty" was beautiful inside and out. She had an almost childlike curiosity about the world and the people in it. She never met a stranger. Betty appreciated the simple pleasures in life; a good card game, a visit with friends, or an evening at the piano. She turned flirting into an art form. :)

She will be missed by our family. We loved her very much!
