

Bobbi Moore

June 5, 2008

Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies. Strength and honor are her clothing; She shall rejoice in time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, And on her tongue is the law of kindness. She watches over the ways of her household, And does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; Her husband also, and he praises her:" Many daughters have done well, But you excel them all. "Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, And let her own works praise her in the gates. Proverbs 31:10, 25-31

“ *Pastor Mark,
I count it a great blessing to have known "Momma". First, over the radio listening to her and your dad on "Joy of Living" when I first came to the Lord and then getting to meet her in person through Heart For Him Mary Panich ministires when she spoke both to our group itself and then at our Conference last fall. She truly was a Proverbs 31 woman. She will be missed. Hugh and I had been praying for her and will continue to hold you and your family up in prayer. You have our deepest condolences.

left by Miss Bobbi. I have never known a family to display such love and concern for others. The love for the Lord and for others has been passed down to their children and grandchildren. Thank you
