“ *I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one.
We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

“ *Bridget and family,
I am so sorry to hear of Bonnie's passing. I remember her from the few times I met her in college as well as when I came over prior to Kids in the Hall years ago. She was a loving and funny woman and I know her spirit will live on through all of you. Please know I am thinking of you all and sending my thoughts to the many people whose lives she undoubtedly made whole.*

“ I was there at the beginning - Wally got me a job at a restaurant in Northville cooking and Bonnie was a waitress there. That's where they met, began dating and started their romance. The romance is gone now but the love will last forever. Hang in there Wally! Hope to see you tonight (Wed.) - I plan to drive down from Bay City to see you old friend.

Old Friend

I recall when we were boys, old friend and ran laughing through the night shadows adrift in the pale moonlight no thought of dreams that end.

The cost be damned back then, old friend as we sought the here and now tore down tradition and sacred cow and broke what wouldn't bend.

The enlightened life we sought, old friend declined to show her ancient face required we seek the human race in which we'd scarcely blend.

Sometimes, these days I think, old friend have I learned a thing at all Sky claimed our hearts with beckoned call now broken wing is slow to mend.

*I miss you every day, old friend your sweet memory gives me pause, to laugh out loud and smile because, we're precious few -
