“ I have fond memories of both Boone and Irene. They were kind and generous and family was important to them. He had the greatest smile and infectious laugh. You could not help but be happy whenever he was around. We always got the best veggies from his gardens and the biggest pumpkins for Halloween. He could can jars and jars of whatever was in the garden. Irene made the best beets. Days gone by. Such good times growing up. A different era not to be forgotten.

“ I only remember Uncle Boone from when I was a kid. He was so kind to me! He was the last of this generation of Philpots and they were so strong. I look forward to seeing him in heaven! My prayers are with you.
