“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Still have the smudge mark from your forehead and my rearview mirror meeting when i hit the brakes in my driveway. We all laughed so hard at that. We grew apart over the years and our lives took different paths but i would have been lying if i told anyone that you weren't my friend. I've known you since you were a little chubby boy and that whole time you never conspired against me or screwed me over. You were always Brandon! Maybe not the easiest person to deal with but far from a bad person. Hard to believe you're never going to walk up to my porch ever again and bug me for a beer or cigarette lol I'll never forget you Brandon. Love you bro
