“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Brett will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Brett again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Brett seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Brett, it was an honor knowing you as both a friend and boxing associate. What a great man you were. We remember the trip to England and the training at Big Bear for your San Diego fight. We will miss your occasional phone calls just to say "hi" and love you. To Brett's Mom and Brad, Brian & sisters, please accept our condolences on this sad loss. Sorry we didn't know sooner so we could visit. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ sorry to read about the passing of Brett. Its sad to see someone so well liked and accomplished have to pass so soon. Despite the grief there is the hope of seeing him again. Jesus promised at John 5:28,29 that there is going to be a "resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous..."
