“ I only met Brian a few times and interacted occasionally on facebook. He always seemed like a genuine guy. I also had the opportunity to hear him sing on a few occasions and his talent was obvious. I am sorry he left so young. The world is a sadder place.

“My sincere condolences to the Begdorian family. Brian was a good soul and will be deeply missed. Brian and I were very good friends through high school, and in our early twenties. As life would have it, we lost touch and had reconnected via this machine through Facebook. ?? You are all in my thoughts and prayers, God Bless.

“ We are sending our love to the whole family. I remember when Jeff started playing bass in Bogart with Brian... he was SO happy and way too cool. We are sure Jeff is welcoming Brian to some new music now. I thank Brian for so much fun, many an introspective conversation and never will forget his voice and his sweet presence.

“ There are no words that can express my sorrow by losing this dear friend of mine.
He had class, talent and was one of the funniest guys I've ever met. Didn't get to see him as often as I would've liked, but when we did, we made the best of it and had a blast wherever we were.
God took his Child, he has other plans for him now.
Brian, you were loved by many. I'm so going to miss you. Love you my brother.

“ The measure of a man inculdes the number of others they touched and left an impression throughout their life. I remember him from high school and was able to see him last year at the Bogart reunion show. I know he'd left a huge impression on many fellow musician friends who knew him as a close & trusted friend. I've learned he was a good family man to. I know his passing is sad for so many. But I know the memories he's given so many will live on till we all meает again in the next chapter. RIP Brian, and healing prayers for all his friends and family.
