“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ My deepest sympathy to your family for the loss of such a great person. Brian was a great friend and if you were lucky enough to be his friend, then you were blessed. To those who really knew Brian he was intelligent, had a heart of gold, and a great sense of humor. You could never have a bad day when Brian was around because his mission would be to make you laugh. He brought joy to lots of people. R.I.P. Brian, you will never be forgotten.

“ I am so very sorry about your loss. Your son Brian, had become a good friend to me in the last 10 years, and his passing is a terrible tragedy for all of us who knew him. Your family have my deepest sympathy. I know that he came from a good family and that you loved him very much, as he did you. He always talked of how much his family meant to him. Your son was an inspiration to me. I admired all those wonderful qualities that made him the special person that he was. He had intelligence, wit, charm and a caring heart that made him a great friend. I will always be thankful that I had the opportunity to get to know him better and to call him my friend. I will cherish his memory for years to come. Until we meet again my friend. I will always carry a special place in my heart for you. I love you Brian. My heart is broken. I will miss you every day for the rest of my life. <3 When my heart is empty, I will fill it with memories to help me find a smile. Count where man's glory most begins and ends, and say my glory is, I had such a great friend.”
