“ Brian came to Michigan in 1992 to join his father Charlie who had moved here to be with me. I look back on that time and feel so blessed that Brian came into my life. He was such a kind person and so caring to the people in his life. He was so interested in so many things. He loved the beach, the lakes up north, working in the garden, designing spaces like the pond he put in in the backyard. He loved nature, watching the animal activity in the pond, the birds, turtles and the great heron drinking from the waterfall. Sunflowers were his favorite flowers and he made sure to plant some seeds in the garden. He loved walking the parks and nature preserves that we discovered as well as walking snowy nights in Plymouth. His favorite vacation spot, and mine too, is Topsail Island NC. It is a beautiful, quiet and unspoiled island where you can lose yourself hunting for sea glass, sharks teeth and other beach treasures. A place of great fun gathering with family and friends and eating blue crabs soaked in butter. Sitting on the deck watching the surf and waves break was the best. Sitting on my deck back in Plymouth after a long day of gardening, planting cherry tomatoes and Brian meticulously maintaining the path he created in the garden was also wonderful. Fred, the/my cat and Brian had a super special bond. Brian would take Fred for the weekend to his apartment and bring him back on Sunday until the next time. I called this Fred's field trips. He would sit by his carrier when he knew he was having a field trip. I kid you not. Brian also loved his motorcycles, mountain biking, diving in his high school years and during his time at University of Pittsburgh, aka, Pitt.

I am so thankful for the time we had together. He was such a sweet kind soul. I loved him as if he were my own son. He gave so much of himself to others. You are at peace now and I thank you for being in my life. My life is infinitely better for having had you in it.

“ Although I only met Brian once or twice, he was one of the nicest people I’ve met. Always heard nothing but good stories about him and how great of an uncle he was. You will be missed Brian.

“ Brian was a beloved member of our family for nearly 25 years. He was a best friend to my husband Kirk and an uncle/ second father figure to our kids, Holly and Alex. We enjoyed having him at the house celebrating holidays, hiding Easter eggs, putting presents under the tree with us on Christmas Eve and watching the kids open them in the morning, making thanksgiving feasts, swimming, playing with the kids, going to the park, playing frisbee, making a silly mini golf course in the backyard, going on bike rides, hunting for spring peepers at the end of the street, watching movies, and so much more. Brian loved going up north to the UP, fishing, hiking, and going out in the canoe. He could relax and enjoy like. Brian cherished those he allowed into his life though we felt like we were the lucky ones. He was always willing to lend a hand, most often without being asked. That’s just the kind of person he was. We were blessed to have him in our lives and his passing is a tremendous loss to all those who knew and loved him. Brian, no measure of time will heal the pain of your passing, but we will always treasure our time together and the memories we made. Rest In Peace dear friend, brother, uncle. We love and miss you dearly.
