“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Brunna will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Brunna again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Brunna seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Dear family and friends, I know that this has been a difficult journey for everyone but now her journey has ended or I should say just beginning as she in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father and all pain and suffering is gone. We are now left with the pain and suffering of knowing in our world we have lost someone we truly loved and enjoyed. We only met her one time at the reunion but she made us feel so welcome and had that grace to love and enjoy people no matter who you are. Every reunion she is missed and my memory will always seeing that loving caring person who made me laugh so many times. Love Grows, Ruby

“ Dear Jerry, Don, Cheryl, & Boys - remember Bruna in your heart she is always just a thought away. We are so sorry for your loss. God does help through those tough moments that you think you can't go through but he really does comfort and give you strength. Now she is with Vincie and Lil and her mom and dad enjoying herself with some long island iced teas. She will be sadly missed by all. We love you guys wish we could be there to help. Call or write anytime. 585-269-8454. Love, Bridget, Adam & Alex
