“ *Alan and Robin, We are so sorry to have just found out about Bryan's passing. Our memories are so fond of the young Scout who was a friend to all he met. To see his picture here with this news, after so long, is just heartbreaking. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May you somehow find peace at such loss.

“ *Thinking of Bryan and his respectful, quiet, kind, caring, and gentle ways. His humor catching you by surprise and bringing laughter and smiles to everyone present. We feel blessed to have witnessed his love for his family, and for knowing such a special man. We love you Smith family.

“ I never saw him without a smile. He was such a kind, gentle young man. He loved his family and especially little Kaylee. I don't know why these things happen but I do have faith in God's promise to us. Sending hugs, love and prayers to his family.

“ Bryan was the epitome of a gentleman...good-hearted, reliable and empathetic and quick-witted. The kind of guy who treated everyone with respect and grace and understanding. He was my cousin and we will miss the hell out of him. This is a huge shock to all of us. They just don't make many Bryan's. A genuinely kind and irreplaceable soul, Bryan Smith was and now forever will be, a legend.
