“ Bryan is the most patient, kind, funny and loving man I have witnessed as a husband and daddy. When you needed help, he was there. Mary Lou and I (Joyce) live across the street and will greatly miss seeing him sitting with Jen and one of the kids running around and interrupting them! We will miss his fantastic cooking, generosity and friendship.

“ You were such a great father and loving husband to my best friend in heaven s daughter. His princess Jennifer. You took Chris and treated him as your very own soon before having 4 beautiful kids together. I can't think of any bad thing to say ever. You were a great guy and everytime I was around you always had the best interest for your family in mind. You will be missed by all. I'm happy y'all had some good times together.
