“ I remember when I first started selling items on Ebay and I was talking to Sue and Buddy about it. I have so many experiences with buyers and one day I was sharing with them about a person who had bought a pair of socks,the person couldn't wait for me to ship them out and Buddy yelled out. " They are just happy to get them no matter what it is". It doesn't sound too funny in writing but it was hilarious,we laughed and laughed.. He was a kind loving man who adored his family and loved his sister and his whole family. He will forever be missed. I was happy to have known him through the years. He adored his nephew William. I am so glad that he was able to spend so much time with him while he was growing up. We love you Buddy!

Love,
Tammy Chard
