“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Since I will be unable to attend either the visitation or the funeral, I want to send my condolences. Carroll, Al Sheldon and I hung out alot when we were growing up, and I recall many good times. Carroll was raised by his grandparents, and I cannot remember one time that I was at his house when his grandmother did not have freshly baked sugar cookies to offer to me. One summer at Green Lake Bible Camp someone asked him if he was related to Cedric Adams the well-known radio (that was before TV) newscaster. Carroll said no, but he adopted the name "Cedric" for our week at camp. He was a fun-loving guy. So, to Lulu, Shannon, Jason, Bridgett, and Megan go my sincere condolences. Carroll was a good man.

“ Sorry to learn of the passing of "Butch". I know that he has major medical problems the last few years but has held on like a trooper. He loved his sister Marion and she was a great inspiration to him. I was reflecting on the night he left Maryland and came to live at our home in Plymouth. In less than a week he had a new job. He had many talents and that was reflected in his employment. God only promised us a short time here on earth, but lots of time in eternity. Be of good cheer. No more surgeries, hospitals, and the things that keep us confined. May God bless each of you in the family.
