“ It's been two months and I can't believe you are gone.

I was 17 months old when our mother placed your newborn self across my lap. I have loved you every day since. I will love you everyday going forward as long as I live.

“ Like so many others, the shock of Candi's death is unreal. Her love of animals, flowers, family, and friends were her strengths and a great example for us all. Rest in peace, old friend.....sending many hugs to her family, especially Debbie and Bill.
