

Carl David Bolognino

June 24, 1946 - March 14, 2013

Bolognino, Carl David, was born to eternal life on Thursday March 14, 2013. He is survived by his grateful wife of 43 years Justine, along with his loving children Charlie (Rachel) and Annie. He was the devoted Papa to Leah, Kara and Hannah. Carl was the son of the late Charles and Ann (Samarziya) Bolognino, and the brother of Maxine (Roland) Gerhard, Jim Bolognino and the late Rosemary Chupinsky. He is survived by many, many loving nieces and nephews. Carl served in the United States Army from 1967 to 1970. Together with his wife, they ran Carl David Photography for over 30 years. Photography was his passion, but nothing was more important to him than his family. He often repeated the famous quote from Winston Churchill, "never, never, never give up", which was how he lived his life; inspiring so many along the way. “ To the Family of Carl David Bolognino: My Sincerest and Deepest Sympathy to you in your loss of Carl, he will truly be very much missed... Please take comfort in the God of the Bible whose name is Jehovah. He truly cares about his human creation. How do we know? Because he tells us at: (1Peter 5:7 reads: "while you throw all your anxiety (or "cares; worries,) because he cares for you. And not only does Jehovah God cares for us, he has already shown it, by giving something at great cost to himself, which is his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, whom was resurrected by Jehovah. see (Acts 2:32; Acts 17:31) to name a few Scriptural references and proof. But soon to come will be a marevlous resurrection of all those in God's memory and at his appointed time. We can stake our lives on his promises. see our official website at www.jw.org for more good news regarding the resurrection promise.

“ What a dear man Carl was! I will always remember how much time he took photographing our entire extended family at our home since our nephew was unable to get to his studio due to physical handicaps. How meticulously he he made solo pictures of Micheal from those group pictures for all of us after Micheal passed away- you would never have known that they weren't taken that way. The hours he spent doing my niece's senior pictures when he was already ill and I am sure didn't feel well. I treasure every picture we have that he took- from our wedding album to many in the following years. He was a true artist and a very kind, brave and special man. I was honored to know him and you were very blessed to have him and he was blessed to have you. He is in the vision of God now- more beautiful than any picture he could ever imagine. God Bless You and your family

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Carl will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Carl again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Carl was always about family. We feel fortunate that we have photographs he took to keep as momentos of him. Because of all he went through health-wise, it would be something the Guinness Book of Records would want to know about. He was truly an amazing man. We will miss his presence.

“ Dear Justine: Bernadette called as soon as she heard about your beloved Carl. My sincere condolences, Justine. Carl was WAY too young, but you are already aware of that. We will always cherish the many pictures he took of all of us; as we cherish the pictures taken by Carl's mentor, your Dad. I will be unable to attend Carl's funeral, but please know that you are in my thoughts, my prayers.
