“ Dear Family of:

Mr. Carl A. Jaros. I'm truly sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one Carl. He most definitely will be missed... What helps me to cope with the death of a loved one, is this scripture (1Corinthians 15:26) "And as the last enemy, death, will be brought to nothing." Also, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.-(Acts 24:15).

“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle Carl. The times that I will remember were all good! Your Dad was a character that I enjoyed. Shooting pool, fishing and playing the accordian. Oh and the stories that he and my Dad would tell it was a wonder they were around to tell them. My thoughts and prayers will be with him and all of you! God Bless

“ I am so sorry to hear about Uncle Carl. I still have very fond and funny memories of him and your mother. I know how hard it is to let go but believe me I still feel the presence of my Dad and Mom every day. They never really leave us we just have to believe. God Bless All of You

“ LEGENDS SAY THAT HUMMING BIRDS FLOAT FREE OF TIME CARRYING OUR HOPES FOR THE JOY AND CELEBRATION. LIKE A HUMMING BIRD, WE ASPIRE TO HOVER AND SAVOR EACH MOMENT AS IT PASSES, EMBRACE ALL THAT LIFE HAS TO OFFER AND TO CELEBRATE THE JOY OF EVERYDAY. THE HUMMING BIRDS GRACE REMINDS US THAT LIFE IS RICH, BEAUTY IS EVERYWHERE, EVERY PERSONAL CONECTION HAS MEANING AND LAUGHTER IS THE SWEETEST CONECTION... -AUTHOR UNKNOWN SO WHENEVER U C A HUMMING BIRD THINK OF CARL N ALL THE GOOD CONECTIONS U SHARED WITH A MAN WHO WAS A FATHER A GRANDPA A FRIENDLY MAILMAN THE GUY ON THE BAR STOOL NEXT TO YOU A NEIGHBOR A FRIEND

“ God gave us a gift when he put Carl Jaros on this earth. Yes, he was hard headed, opinionated, and bossy but also kindhearted, loving, funny, and wise. I can not think of a day that I saw him were I did not learn something new. He lived life how life should be lived and helped teach that to the people he met. I consider myself lucky to have got to know him, and the only tear I shed is for the unfortunate people that never got the chance to meet such a great man. His larger then life personality will always live through his 23 children, and I know we will one day all be together again.

“Gone but never forgotten! Dad's legacy is in his 8 children - all very independent, strong, loving and unique in their own way, yet so alike in many respects. Memories: Who can forget Sunday morning accordian serenades? The yearly Lent resolution that was broken the first weekend. The competition and side bets for fishing ( who gets the first one, who's is bigger), card games, cribbage and later Wii bowling. He never "threw" a game to let us kids win. When we did win, it was because we earned it. We knew he'd leave us on his terms - in his sleep, at home and finally ready to be with Mom. They will be together for their 60th anniversary, once again with no kids and starting a "new" life together until we all can join them. We all love and miss you both tremendously.

“To Denise and family, Your father has always been a delight and inspiration to me. I met him for the first time while I was in high school. Turns out he worked at the same post office as my Dad, I old have to be careful. When your mother died and Mark and Roxy were so young I admired him for keeping your family together in tough times. Carl was also an inspiration. e is the reason I am out looking for a Wii. When Denise told me he loved the bowling I thought if Carl can get off the couch and exercise then so can I. One year we went to the bar, he tried to teach me to throw darts but I was not a great student. OK I admit I did like the attention and his flirting. It's no surprise to me that you will miss him, and I can see you all up there in heaven hanging out.

“ Kevin I can't find the words to express what you have meant to me. Although I really miss you, I know you are now at peace. My thoughts and prayers will always be with you. Dad, your spirit will always be with me. I know this is only temporary and we will see each other again in heaven. I hope you, mom and Alex will watch over us. Love you forever.

“ Dear Shemwell Family, We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Losing a parent is never easy no matter how prepared you think you may be. May God send you comfort in the following days and soon may your sad thoughts of dad turn to happy memories of the good times you spent with him.

“ Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.

We will miss you Grandpa. Please give a hug and kiss to Grandma and Alex for us.
