“ "Daddy Sprad", I remember your sense of humor and your stories from our visits long ago. You were full of life and fun. "Firecracker" certainly is a good way to describe you. It may be strange, but I still think of you every time I buy French's yellow mustard. I'm sure Heaven is a bit more fun with you there.

*Keeping Carl and Mew and the family in my thoughts in prayers.

“ Dad--I was thinking this morning how blessed you were in life! You were blessed to find love 3 times. You were blessed with 3 great kids and a daughter in law. You were blessed with 2 wonderful grand children. You were also blessed with 2 foreign exchange grand children too! What a wonderful life!

“ My precious brother-- Oh the childhood memories I have of you as we grew up on that farm in Southern Ohio. Chores after school, you, driving me to school activities, your playing Rook cards with the guys/ I remember cleaning your house after you built it and getting to spent time with you. I remember your car accident on Dry Run Hill curve and the day that you cut your head with an ax as you cut firewood. I will always remember my last visit with you this past May. I also remember you driving down here alone to comfort me when I lost my precious husband. My three sons will always remember their "firecracker" Uncle Carl.
