“ Car was one of my favorite patients. Learning of her death rocked me. We used to sit and chat about books, science, and the news during my downtime. My love goes out to her husband and sister, both who were with her constantly. I will miss her dearly.

“ Car was my best friend in the engineering research building. She took care of my postdoc life in Michigan. We shared with each other daily news and lives. I told her a lot about what happened in Hong Kong. She loved big cities and I got a lot of fresh news from Hong Kong because my wife lived there at that time. Her big sweet smiles made me feel like I'm home. I still remember one Saturday when we were both in the building, and she came checking how everything was going and left me a box of lemon cookies. During the pandemic, she emailed me worrying my wife and I couldn't get together. I tried to reach her before I left Michigan through emails. I hoped I would have asked through other ways to get to talk to her again. My wife and I miss her a lot. She will stay in our heart forever.

“ Car had some overlap with me when I was in CUOS/Optic lab. We were friendly to each other, had coffee time together. Car encouraged me a lot on different aspects in life. I can't accept this sad news. Car, you were such a blessing to other people, I miss you !

You stopped the working on earth, may your soul peacefully with God in heaven !
