“ Dear Ekholm and Riggott families - It's impossible to condense forty-plus years of friendship and convey with words all that Carol meant to us. She was an exceptionally beautiful and gracious person. When we met in the early 60's, Carol already had 3 sisters; Jeannette has 2 sisters, as I do. But, early on we decided that we were also sisters. Even though our lives took different directions, our friendship not only endured, it thrived! We truly loved her and will truly miss her everyday. Our deepest condolences to you.

“ *Lee, Brian, and Kevin,
Paul and I are continuing to uplift your family in prayer. Carol's long battle has been won and now she is with all the saints who have gone before her. She will be long remembered for her dedication and love she had for her family. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her. May God bless and comfort you with the peace that passes all understanding.
