“ Mom was a amazing women always there for all of us. Had great times doing pottery, going to thrift stores for treasures, her cooking was awesome especially glumpky's. She had a great love for the Lord and loved my father to the ends of the earth. She has brought many memories and family she is now a legacy of love and memories. My heart is sadden and my love goes out to our family. Love Eileen and Kevin Lynch.

“ Carol will always be remembered for her love of sharing her interest in crafts, shopping, Christian tv shows and her famous Christmas get togethers. She always had something that she was excited about and wanted you to know. We will miss her energy and outlook on life. Stanley and Nancy Bowers

“ Grandma Carol:
was a loving caring person, who will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
She was full of warm hugs and smiles.
She made sure we had a wonderful time visiting with her and took all of us; 3 grand children to get make overs: from hair cuts to shopping and bought us clothes and all the way to dressing our feet with our shoes or boots and coats or jackets, and always took us to church. We always had a wonderful time and will be missed greatly. Our deepest condolences to all the family and her friends.
The Ryan family:
Her Grand daughter Tammy (daughter of Mary), husband Robert, and their 2 girls, (her great grand daughters) MaKayla and Daytona, and (her great great grand daughter) MarLee.
MaKaylas husband Levi Davis and Daytona's fiancé Xander Marsh.
Until we see you again Someday.
Sending you hugs and kisses to heaven.

“ My sympathy to Carol's family & treasured friends. Warm memories of Carol from many years ago when we all lived on Kopernick Street in Detroit, shall remain with me forever. I recall her as "Cookie" all those years, and marveled at her piano playing as well as her beauty. Our paths finally crossed once again years later when she moved to Wayne, Michigan. Grateful we were able to bond once again and share many moments from our past. Rest In Peace, dear cousin. - Dorothy (Mc Lonis) McDonald
