“ Carol was a lovely person who will truly be missed. Carol and her grand-daughter graciously stayed to help decorate for the Archway Halloween Party last year and we had a great time eating pizza and hanging "cobwebs & spiders".

“ Gay and Family: Having experienced what you went through with Carol, we send our most sincere sympathy and condolences to you and your family. While she is finally at peace, you must continue to live your lives and it is very difficult, but always try to remember the good things and time will begin to heal your broken hearts! Perhaps she and Linda are up there getting reacquainted once again as the cousins they once were years ago! Take heart--we will all join them in time.

With Loving Memories of a more pleasant past, we wish you the best in the future, Pat and Jim “ Carol was a truly beautiful person inside and out. I never heard her complain about anything and she always had a pleasant demeanor. Whenever we would speak of personal matters she would always start the off by talking about her grandchildren. I know that family was important to her and she carried you with her all the time. May God bless you and keep you strong during this time. My prayers are with you and you're loved ones. Sincerely ~Jesse White

“ I'm very sorry for your loss.

I worked with Carol at Archway Marketing. I did not know her very well, but always found Carol to be a joy with which to speak. She used to take line-dancing lessons that were offered there at Archway. We used to dance once a week, off and on, for a couple of years. She was always fun and always made the dancing interesting.

I will keep Carol in my paryers. I wish you all an easy transition, and I hope your hearts are able to mend soon.

“ Dear Koons Family - I am so sorry for your loss. I am an employee of Archway and only worked with Carol for a brief time. I recently just lost two very dear family members (father and grandmother) and I know the loss is too devastating to even comprehend. Carol was such a special person to have fought and endured the unimaginable. She is in a much better place and is no longer suffering. That, in itself, is comforting to know. My prayers, thoughts and condolences to your family.

“ Carol was a class lady, and her smile and demeanor are already sorely missed.

She, her family and friends are in prayers.
