“ I cannot say how sad this makes me to hear such a VIBRANT woman no longer here...I would talk to Carol at least once a week..I was last with her early March, she loved animals as much as I did and we got the chance to meet when we worked together at a hotel in StAugustine. She absolutley was full of life and loved the beach :) It hurt me that I had to move back and leave her alone she toward the end just talked so much about wanting to reunite with her family because there was nothing for her here. I encouraged her too everyday but she worried about her belonginngs lol silly of her, but she talked often about her nieces/nephews and how she wanted to be more family oriented...she loved her family even though she was so far away. I only wish I would have had the pleasure of knowing her longer . If someone reads this could you find the strength to email me and tell me what the autopsy said..I am a funeral director and am curious. It wont change things unfortunately, but I sure do wish you find comfort and peace, she was a very RELAXED and GIVING woman! I loved her much....please email me regarding any details you may wish to share. Thank You so very much.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Carol will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Carol again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Carol seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
