“ Dear Tony, Anne and Amy, Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I remember Carole as a thoughtful, loving presence at Sacred Heart. There are people who are remarkable that you meet along the way in this life and Carole was remarkable. God bless! Love & peace, Ms. T

“ We believe that Tony, Ann, and Amy dedicated their lives, their love, and their efforts to making the best possible existence for Carole to the very end. No one could have done more to meet her needs. They should take pride and comfort for their actions. We're certain Carole appreciated this.

We are without Carole's presence, for today. We love her! Dave and Marilyn Renner

“ Hello, I am extremely sorry to hear that you have lost a loved one to death. Death of a loved one is one of the hardest things to endure. There are two scriptures that always help me when a friend or family member of mine passes away. They are Revelation 21:4 and Acts 24:15. Revelation says: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be anymore pain: for the former things are passed away." This scripture shows the love God has for us because he will do these things for us. He knows that death and pain are hard for us to go through and he soon will get rid of it. Acts says: "...there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both the just and unjust." This tells us that without a doubt, we know that Carole will have a chance to be with you again. God has promised in his word the bible that all of the dead will be resurrected. I hope these scriptures strengthen you as they strengthen me. Enjoy the rest of your day!
