“ *I was so sorry to read about the loss of Carole and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).
Respectfully, T. Cherry*

“ *Our family would like to express our sympathy. We all have fond memories of growing up at St. Christopher's with Carole and the entire Kenward family. She was a good friend/fellow den mother to our mom/wife Joan. They were both strong and beautiful women. We hope you find comfort in realizing that God now has His arms lovingly wrapped around her. You are in our thoughts.
Sincerely, The Walters Family*

“ My thoughts and prayers are with one of my best friends and your family. Mrs. Kenward was like a second mother to me in high school. She was a very special person...and she raised a very special family.

“ I will so miss Carol. She was one of the earliest happy memories of my childhood. She used to chase me around, toss me in the air, and smother me with kisses. For the longest time I referred to her as "Cousin Kissie".

As I grew older we came to respect and care for each other as adults. Although I was her first cousin, her fine children were closer in age to me and have grown as well into people in which she took so much pride, and a brood of grandchildren she adored.

I will always remember her kindness to my mother and the comfort and sympathy she gave my family during her decline. No matter what was going on in her life, she never seemed to say "no" to anyone who was in need. She also made the best homemade noodles and chicken soup I've ever had.

We were very lucky to have her in our lives. She left us too soon, but at the same time, she also endured more pain than a person should bear, but did so with a determined tenacity and stubbornness that is a common Klosowski trait.

May the Lord bless and keep you close, dear cousin. Know that we honor your memory and wish you well embraced by the Lord and the passed relatives you loved so much.

My love always...

“ My sincere sympathy to the entire Kenward family. As I lost my grandmother this past winter, I know the pain and loss you are feeling. May you draw strength from our loving God who promises to soon undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28,29 we are assured that soon God will resurrect our loved ones back to life in paradise. May this promise from God bring hope and comfort to your family during this most difficult time.
