“ Carolyn was my second cousin. My grandmother was Bertha McClurg Cave, and my mother, Dorothy Colleran, was Carolyn's first cousin. I remember growing up visiting Carolyn and her parents and brother Alan in Indianapolis every year. We also got to see my great-uncle Fred and my great-aunt Blanche. When my mother turned 80 Carolyn and Alan traveled to Silver Spring, MD to surprise her at her birthday party. Several years ago when one of my sons was in the hospital near Ann Arbor, MI, Carolyn drove from Plymouth, MI to help me out. Carolyn was a big help, and we also had the most wonderful time reminiscing about our families.

These photos are so touching. She was such a sweet woman always donating her time and service. I am grateful to have known her and was so sad to hear of her passing. Sending love to all of her family and friends.
