“ I will never forget how much support she gave, her acts of selflessness and how loving she was.

“ I remember being at Carol and Steffies house all the time when I was growing up. It was a fun place filled with love an excitement. I loved playing there alone with Stephanie when I was really little, I still remember some of her toys and then as the house changed over the years to include so many more people. My thoughts are with the family and there will never be anyone else like Carol.

“ There is no heart bigger than one who takes in children not her own and makes them her own, with love and guidance. We talk about leaving the world a better place, but you walked that walk for a long time and truly did it, Carol. No need to give you angel wings in heaven- you've had them all along. Rest in the peace you so deserve, beautiful lady.

“ My beautiful, sweet, funny Aunt Carolyn. 63 years of love you’ve given me. I pray you know how much I’ve loved you. From my youngest memories of when you took me to the grocery store and I was scared and screamed there’s a witch! You hurried me out as you tried to calm me while explaining what a Nun was. Or when you would babysit and took me to some of your “grown up” parties. I always thought you were so pretty, modern and chic, my cool Aunt. You bought me my first nylons. I still remember that. You saved me from a horrendous haircut and brought me to one of your hairstylist friends and he fixed the situation with a new “do”. Your psycho cat, Nudge was always lurking around for that next attack but fortunately Jerry took her to the farm and gave her to a nice couple. You gave the best back rubs..You told me about an opening at American Airlines when I needed a stable income. Some of the best memories came from there where I met your many friends and they became mine. We were roommates for a time. You introduced me to a young pilot who was asking about me. We later became married (Lee). Afterwards your family grew from having one daughter(Stephanie), with fostering children and adopting many of them into a loving home.

You’ve had the biggest heart and such a kind soul. I’m going to miss that soft voice and chuckle but I’ll never forget it. The void you are leaving in my life will never be filled. However that part of me that you have shaped and added to my life’s story will be with me always.

So hug all the family greeting you in Heaven. Tell them I said hello and I will be looking for you on the other side when it’s my turn. Until later, I love you aunt Carolyn .... hugs “ Carolyn, since the very first day I met here, never judged. Was always accepting. She's a Hero in my eyes for raising and saving so many children. She will be missed dearly.
