“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Carolyn will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Carolyn again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Carolyn seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Although we live in Lima, Peru, we remember good times together with Carolyn and her family - not many, but memorable. She was always a happy and good friend who shared Christ wherever she was. There is pain in losing a loved one, but satisfaction when we KNOW for certain where she is! God is Good!

“ Dear Don, I am deeply sorry to hear of Carolyn's passing, but rejoice in knowing that she is with The Lord. Many years ago as a struggling graduate student, I always looked forward to Sundays because I knew Carolyn was waiting with a hug, a smile and words of wisdom. Both you and Carolyn were very encouraging to me when we attended DWO. I have never forgotten the grace and love Carolyn freely shared with so many.... May God's peace be with you and the family.

“ Dear Don and Family, We were all so sad to hear of Carolyn passing on to be with the Lord in heaven. We miss her so, we have all wept, but especially Jody who has wept and wept for Carolyn, she loved her so. But then we must strive to find joy in all of this, to put ourselves in remembrance of what Paul the Apostle said about his passing on to be with the Lord in 2 Tim. 4:7-8 “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: [8] Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing.” Carolyn has definitely completed all that Paul said he did and now she too shall receive her crown of righteousness along with her mother, father, and our two sons, Neal and Seth, in Jesus name, Amen! We must all find a way to rejoice through all this, in spite of all the sadness and sorrow. We have the promise of the hope of glory to come for each of us who have lived their lives for Jesus Christ. Soon we'll be with Carolyn too after we've fought our good fight of faith as she did all her life, we'll receive our crowns of righteousness then and live together again for all eternity, Amen! Keep your faith, the Lord is at hand. With all our love, peace and blessing until we meet again, Charles A. Spradlin, Sr, Jody, and all of our children

“ A husband's prayer Dedicated to Carolyn Williams By Michael Evans On bended knee and with bowed head, I surrender my heart to you oh God Not in Lordship as you have known, but in release, in tears of mind, will and emotion Her portion of my heart is again carried to You, oh Lord That portion which You entrusted to her By the one which You gave me, it is now returned to You oh Lord For as always You are the guardian of our hearts a Companion Faithful and True. She has guarded this heart of mine, for You oh Lord, Her effort valiant in Love, Truth and Grace Thank you for that grace oh Lord That such a treasure was entrusted to me For I held her heart tenderly, Seeing, You in its scarlet reflection And lo again it was me I saw oh Lord, Transformed a better man, by You in her. She was a vessel to place my heart in for safe keeping I know Where pulse and flow would never be hindered Your protection has been at my side I have known that You can give and that You can take away But not in grief nor anger will I accuse Not giving away the victory would I dare For You are faithful and true oh Lord To me and my beloved still So by enlightened heart, I will proclaim Your kindness, in granting such sweet grace to me That in absence she still whispers her love to me While You, near by, hear Willing to comfort, willing to assure, in safe keeping shall my heart be Still held in Your hand near Your heart, with her it will forever be. We love you Donny

“ Carolyn was my very special "kissin cousin"! Her smiles, hugs, and kisses were always unique. From my earliest rememberances, her smile radiated and made me feel loved. She leaves such a wonderful legacy. You are the most loving family I have ever known and I know your hearts are grieved, but joyful for her. She will be missed greatly! I know she is up there with Jackie and all dancing and singing and we will all be together soon. I wish Michael and I could come up, but please know we are with you in spirit and love!

“ Dear Brother Don and family, We are so very sorry for your great loss...and "jealous" that Carolyn is in Heaven ahead of us. Don, you and Carolyn are dear friends. We most remember Carolyn for her faith, her love for Jesus, her strong gift of encouragement,...and her blueberry muffins. We miss being able to get together as in "The old days" but look forward to the assurance of eternity together. With all those children, grandchildren, and great grand Carolyn's mantle/gifts are sure to grow and grow and grow. Be comforted in the Lord. We love you.

“ When ever we had a prayer need we ALWAYS wanted it to go to Carolyn. We always said, Carolyn has a direct line to Jesus..IF she is praying about it HE will hear!" She was a wonderful lady and I loved knowing her when I was little. Just think..she has seen HIS face and heard HIS name...She is in paradise..everything she SO deserved is hers and she stands before the Lord in pure joy knowing how many souls she brought to him. She was a blessing to all who knew her. Love to all, Beckey, Josh and family

“ Carolyn was a special friend and her memory will be with us the rest of our lives. To see her love and beautiful smile always required a hug; which was easy to give! It was evident she loved each member of her family in her own special way. Her physical presence is our loss; but we know the Angels rejoiced when she arrived in Heaven!! Praying for all of you!!

“ I have such fond memories of your Mom and the good ol' FBC days when our kids were young together. Both of your parents were often there as we were in and out of each other's homes in those days. Your Mom always had a smile on her face. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as you go through this difficult time. It's wonderful to know that she is with her Lord and Savior but I know you will miss her presence in your family so much. I love you guys and if you need anything at all, please let me know. Pat
