“ I am very sorry to just now have learned of the passing of Cass Ogonowski. He and my father worked for the City of Detroit many years ago and became friends. I volunteered for him in campaign for reelection to the State House in 1972. I came to know his family quite well. I am sorry to hear of his passing

“ This will not sit well with some, and some will be glad it was said. I have read the comments below and wish I could have met my grandpa when he was alive. That is right, I am the son of Patricia Ogonowski, the daughter this man abandoned with her sister Karen when he divorced my grandma Virginia Wagner. This man never cared for nor gave a crap for his first two children and lived just minutes away! This despicable human being never got to know my mother and the wonderful, caring loving woman that she grew up to be! He also never got to know his other grandchildren, my siblings Dawn and Todd, and my Karen's kids, Lori, Lynn, Kenny and Keith. We saw him once at Farmer Jacks near Warren, he was in a black Lincoln, and was campaigning to be state rep. We went up to him, my brother and I and said we were his grand children by his daughter Pat and the coward jumped in his car and sped away. Some call him a hero, well My Mom is my hero and no matter how much BS, hardship and curve balls god and life threw at her, she has ALWAYS done the best for her family and been there for all of us. So Grandpa,you might go to heaven, and if you do I hope God gives you the job of cleaning up heavens garbage and gives you no rest!

“ So my father has passed and never a word was spoken between us in all my 68 years. Sorry he never got to know me or is other grandchildren, but that was his choice. We all have lost something.
