“ Aunt Ceil was always full of energy but what I remember most about her was her talent as a seamstress. She made me my first flower girl dress for a wedding I was in when I was about 7 years old and then a beautiful first communion dress. She was always making and hanging curtains. She shared this amazing talent with her family, and we were all so grateful. We were blessed to have her for so long. May she rest in peace.

“Cecelia was a Mother, Godmother and Aunt (great and great-great). She survived pancreatic and breast cancer and many health challenges. She was also my Special Person. When we were both a little younger, we enjoyed going out to lunch and our talks. She would tell me about growing up in Scranton. At 98, she had the most beautiful skin---no wrinkles! I will miss joking around with her and how she always saw the best in me. I will truly miss you my dear Godmother. Love, Gail

“Dear Deborah, please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your mom. Bob and I totally enjoyed the times we spent talking with her, because she spoke with a smile on her face and in her voice and seemingly embraced life with a cheerfulness that drew people to her.

The donations you and your mom made to Father Solanus Casey Center in Bob's name while he was ill were so kind and much appreciated. I will always remember your mom with a very special fondness. She was a remarkable lady.

A donation has been made in your mother's name to St Judes Children's Hospital.

With love and a warm hug to YOU, Joan Klein

“ This Dennis, I have know of lady Cecilia for decades. It wasn't until the last few I got to know lady Cecilia and her wit, wisdom, sense of humor among other things. I threaten to take her dancing she always declined. I enjoyed verbally poking her to get her dander up but she knew it was just in fun. Here is a couple tidbits of wisdom. " you be nice to Dennis" that was to my lovely wife Marcia. Here another one " you listen to him" also to my lovely wife. A few days before lady Cecilia went to dance and sing with Jesus, Deb told her mom Dennis and Marcia are here to see you, Cecilia said " I love you Dennis". Lady Cecilia was a very beautiful lady who I will miss.

“ This is Marcia a few days after Miss ceil entered hospice she already was not opening her eyes and saying very little but I came in and Deborah said to her mom.. mom Marcia is here and in a loud voice without her eyes opening she said oh my God I can't believe it thank you Lord I love you. And that's a quote. A couple years ago I was staying with her because Deborah had a doctor's appointment and we had the best time talking together and laughing
