“ If this is number 2, forgive me. I remember when Patty and I were both pregnant. I was amazed at the way she was planning to take care of 2 at a time. I always struggled to tell who was Chad and who was Jason. Even last October when we saw you all last. Those memories are even more precious now. Love and prayers. ❤️❤️❤️ 🙏😭 Patty, Jason, Jack and all who were close to Chad.

“ You were more than a brother, you were also my best friend!
Growing up together we always had each other's back, and our special bond is still there, in my heart! You were a great dad to your two kids. And I couldn't have asked for a better uncle for my two girls! I miss those nights of watching football or hockey, whatever was on! You'll live on in my heart forever!!!

“ I am so very sorry to hear of this loss. I met Jason and Chad many years ago through Kim (Samantha's mother). He was always very quiet and sweet. Although I have not seen him in years I do know what he meant to his niece. Chad was too young and his loss came too soon. My heart goes out to his family and friends.

“ Chad was a very strong man with an inspiring story. I only got to know him in a short amount of time but I could tell he was a true gentleman. The way he treated my mom was insanely beautiful, I'd never seen her so happy in my life. There was never a time where I saw Chad and he didn't ask how I was. I could tell Chad appreciated life and took everyone for who they were, that was my favorite part about him. He never once judged me in a negative way. I knew he was so happy and living life to the fullest. I'm so sad I couldn't have known him longer and watched him and my mom grow even stronger than they were. He was a great person and changed my outlook on life. Chad was very lovable and will be very missed by my family. My thoughts are with his family.
