“ Mr. Ploughman is part of such an amazing family of which he helped create. He always brightened my day when he would greet us in church when we were children. A great and gentle man...

“ He was my brother, how lucky I was. He was my brother, how gentle a person. He was my brother, missed now but will always be remembered in life. He was my brother, who liked everyone, and everyone liked. He was my brother, who loved our family, and family loved him.
The tears on this page are not in sadness, but fall as so many memories of his good life with our family fill my mind.
He is my brother , how lucky I am!

“ Seeing the recently posted pictures of Chuck and remembering many wonderful past times – especially when vacationing in Plymouth, Massachusetts, we are thankful. Those happy memories today have a lonely edge with Chuck no longer with us. We will deeply miss this gentle and caring man, his smile and thoughtfulness. No one could have taken better care of our sister. Thanks, Chuck. The Leydons: Jack, Bob, Fran, Terri and Bill (Say hi to Ed for us).

“ *My love to the entire Ploughman and Bowe families.
My best memories of Chuck were sailing on the "Elbo Jane".
Although occasionally a little scary always enjoyable. The best father in law you could ask for.*
