“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Charles will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Charles again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ My heart goes out to all of you. I pray that God will hold your hands during these sad times and the days, weeks and years to come. I will and am missing Uncle Chuck, he was a great man, a man that I looked up to and admired so much. He has touched so many people in his life time that words can not express how much he will be missed. Uncle Chuck, I know you can hear me, I have one more water balloon with your name on it, I will see you again one day! I love all of yall, God bless each and everyone of yall!

“ I am so sorry to hear that we will no longer get to witness Uncle Chuck's soulful laugh, twinkling smile and that signature pipe aroma in person. I am thankful, however, to have all of these things in my memory. He was such a kind man and I will miss him dearly. As a child I always looked forward to seeing him in his Shriner's hat when Papa Heard and Dad would take Amber and I to the Shrine Circus. Uncle Chuck was our celebrity at the show and it was neat to wave at him when the Shriner's walked past. These memories will make me smile for years to come.

“ Jeff, I ABSOLUTELY LOVED your message to Grampa! I can totally remember sitting and watching them do JUST that, at the family reunions. My Dad and MY Uncle Bob playing against them and gettin their butts kicked, too! Lol! All my Great Uncles and Aunts were and are the best! The Heard Boys will NEVER be forgotten! And your Dad Uncle Bill is still with us and loved to so much! WHATA clan, lol! We still have the next generation down from all the GREATS, and know THEIR the ones kickin butt in the pits at family reunions! I as you feel TRULY BLESSED TO BE A HEARD AND PART OF THIS GREAT FAMILY, us Heards are a breed of our own! Even my girl Phoebe has THE HEARD in her! My Grampa like the rest of his brothers are truly SPECIAL MEN and all leave such great legacies in us behind! They all, and I mean EVERY single one of them lived life to its very potential and they all had tons of fun doing it! IM SO PROUD TO BE A HEARD AND ALWAYS WILL BE! I will miss my Grampa SO MUCH! And your damned right-as Grampa would say-they were all pranksters and made this family and the next generation the greatest people I've known! I love so much EACH AND EVERY SINGLE ONE OF US! And I'm so proud to teach my daughter, what the HEARD way! Love to Grampa Heard and to all of you!

“ I am going to miss my Uncle Chuck he was the last of my uncles to leave. Uncle Chuck or as I would call him Uncles C was the coolest, funniest man . He was always pulling pranks. Uncle Chuck had the biggest heart and always had a smile on his face. I don't ever remember him ever being mad. I loved the smell of his pipe.He alway said to me look at the head on that. (too me) LMAO! I always replied, what! Because I look like you lol. :-) in his prime you didn't want to take up a game of horse shoes against him and Uncle Bob they would kick your butt and then some..I have been blessed to have some of the most wonderful Uncles. but now they are all gone but I know you are all up there in heaven sitting around a camp fire cracking jokes with Jesus . I am sure Uncle Chuck even challenging him to a game of shoes. If anybody could give him a game it's him..God bless uncle C, I love you! and one day we will meet again when I come to the other side JJ :-)

“ So sorry, God took him way to soon. God must have a better plan for such a funny, dedicated family man like Uncle Chuck. I will remember, when he spoke to you, he would always speak with great honesty and from his heart. When he laughed, he laughed with his heart and sole. He loved his family and loved pets. He was just a great all around guy! He will be greatly missed! Your Niece Pam
