“ Uncle Charlie was loved by Al and I. As children, we always thought he made a good gorilla when he played with us. We have fond memories and always had fun at family gatherings. We appreciated the love he demonstrated to our father, Herman, by visiting and encouraging him. Uncle Charlie will be missed dearly!
With love, Steve and Alan Russell

“ I first met Chuck when his wife was a part of the Romulus Mission Church in the late 70's. Chuck did not attend church at the time. I remember having a very nice visit with him in his home. He later gave his life to the Lord and then was called to preach. What a blessing to see how God used Chuck over the years.
