“ I'm so sorry to hear about my uncle and godfather Chucks passing. I know that he's in a better place now. The last time I saw him, at my wedding in 2000 I let him know that he was the one responsible for leading me to a life of pool playing. He laughed and said " I hope you won some money!". He is loved and remembered by many. May God bless him and all of you.

“ Rest in peace Uncle Chuck. You gave me a job for 22 years and provided a fine life for my family. I copied the values you set as an employer of which you passed on to your middle son John as well. I have followed your fine examples of how to fairly treat your employees and I have used them for the 19 years I have owned my business. Thank you again.
