“ It’s coming up on 15 years you’ve been gone my friend and I still think about you and remember asking you if you were ready for lunch in the Bay next to me. Gone but never forgotten! Rest easy my friend 🙏

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Charles will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Charles again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Charles seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Charlie's seen it all and done it all. We'll miss his witt, his stories and most of all his friendship. Our faith leads us to believe that we'll see each other some day and I hope it happens to shake your hand to say hello instead of goodbye. RIP....Much love from us.

“ Charlie had a wonderful spirit and blessed my childhood with many happy memories. He always gave me a huge squeeze when he saw me, even into my adulthood! He always asked about my parents, my brother, and my oldest and dearest friend, Cran. It saddens me that I won't see his smiling eyes again, and that I can't be there for my surrogate parents, Mack and Joanie. They loved him so much. He will always be loved and never be forgotten. My condolences to all of his friends and family.

“ How much we love you! You have been a part of our life for so many years. You were family really! This spiritual saying reminds me of you... "God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered come live with me" and on and on it goes....One other part "A golden heart stoped beating, your hardworking hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best. We will be together one day to reminisces as always and laugh our fool heads off! Rest in peice knowing how much we all will miss you and remember you. My HRF brother when the thunder roars Mac & I will know it will be you!! God Bless you and your family! Mac & Joanie

“ May the Angels of my brothers and sisters who have gone before me guard my travels, for they know the perils of the road ahead of me. Keep me safe through the rough city streets on my way to the land of swirling turns and rolling hills. Let the turning colors of fall keep me warm. Let the Eagle guide me to the mountain tops. Let the moons light guide me through the night. May my tires not fail me, nor my engine grow old, may my bike draw life from the streams I pass. Keep my seat soft and my mind sharp. Let the air of spring breath life into my soul, to journey into another adventure alongside my brothers and sisters. Rest in Peace my Brother ,FFFF
