“ When Charlie announced he was getting married, I was inconsolable. I could not stop crying. My father tried with " Meska; if it is meant to be, it will be." I was about 13 years old. I met Charlie when I was 5. He was "the other Diane's" big brother. I remember years of joyful childhood play with the Verslype family. Many make-believe scenarios were played out, in and around, the Verslype backyard. And Charlie tolerated 3 little girls; Diane, Diane and Elaine, tagging after him and his friends as they set up a tent and built forts in the vacant field between our yards. Years later I realized he knew of this little girl's crush on him and I was aware of the kindness he showed in how he treated me. Charlie will always be in my memories as the handsome boy in the flannel plaid shirt. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and especially with my dear friend, Diane.

I worked with Chuck at the Edison in Engineering for years. He was always very professional. He set a great example for us younger engineers. When he moved from Dearborn Hts he gave me a great wooden desk that was once used at the Edison. I refinished it and still use it this day. I just learned of Chuck's passing and trust that he has been well in God' wonderful care.

“ When I was little my brother took me to the show, when the show was over we started to walk home. It was quite a distance to walk and I tired out, my brother picked me up and carried me on his back all the way home. I never forgot that, he was always a sweet brother and I will miss him dearly, I love you Charlie, sister Diane
