“ So sorry to learn of the passing of Chuck. My favorite memory as a kid was when my brothers and I visited our great grandmother, Nannie (Martha Kotlaske). He and Charlotte would come over to tell her about the family history they uncovered in their travels within the United States and beyond. I found it fascinating and so did my brothers. He actually was the inspiration that got me interested in our family history. May he rest in peace. And may he see Nannie, my grandparents (Harry and Leona Winekoff), Aunt Blanche, and all our other family members in heaven. God Bless, ~Scott and Josette (Oddo) Knapp

“ I'm so sorry to hear that Chuck has passed. I've known Chuck since the early Nineties when I was on the City Council and he opposed an open detention pond on the development across from City Hall and his home. The neighborhood and the whole city owe him a debt of gratitude for his standing up to help make the Kroger @ Ford & Central City a better development. He was a good man who cared about others and his city. Whenever I'd stop by to say hello, he'd greet me with a big smile and handshake. Last fall Gail and I took him a pot of Mums we'd bought at Kroger and it was the last time I'd see him. We will miss looking across Central City and seeing him sitting on his porch. Rest in Peace my friend and give Charlotte a big hug for me. I know that empty spot in your heart is now full. My deepest sympathy to his family.
