“ My deepest condolences to the Yerkes family. Your loved one will truly be missed. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. The scriptures indicate that it is possible to be re-united with your dead loved one in the near future, not in an unknown heaven, but right here on earth under peaceful conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Jesus Christ promised this at: (John 5: verse 21) For Just as the Father (Jehovah God) raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son (Jesus Christ) also makes those alive whom he wants to. Please find comfort in these promises. If you would like to know more, Please contact myself or any of Jehovah's Witnesses in your area. Thank, you
