“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Charlie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Charlie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Charlie seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Claire and I are thinking about all of you and are in our thoughts and prayers. I have so many memories of Charlie over the years and they are all good ones. He was always wonderful to me and our family and we will all miss him dearly. Please let us know if there is anything that Claire and I can do, as we know all too well what your family is dealing with. Al and Claire Poynter

“ I was so sorry to have read the paper tonight. IN St. Clair we don't get the paper often. On a recent visit to Sinbads maybe first in a year your names came up w/ my cousin Fred. I left thinking how nice that alls well. Sinbads lost a great customer in Charlie. I will never forget how nice he always was to me and my family. I will never forget when he jumped the fence from Neff to help me fix my car back in the 80's. We will sure miss him and will always think and pray for him

“ Dear Ginny, John, Kenny & Kristen - My condolences and prayers are with you. He was a great man and I know he loved you all very much - it was written all over his face. I will remember him as the man who fixed my first car! May you have wonderful memories and enjoy celebrating his life with friends and family this Saturday. Love Jill
