“ I enjoyed talking to Charlotte, she was the nicest woman (of all women). I knew of her suffering, but didn't stop. She was the best daughter, mother and grandmother, in Michigan, and I even honor her son, known for his jokes. May she #RIP.

“ Char has been both friend and family. Then most of all my sister in Christ. She will be greatly missed. I see her loving spirit in the lives of her children. Much love to all of Char's family if you need any thing or just need to talk I just a phone call away. 💙💗

“ We met Char in 1974 at Don & Carolyn's house. We all became great friends right away and she was in my wedding. When my dad (Carl Glancy) was in Oakwood Hospital in 1975 Charlotte would come to his room everyday before or after her shift. I know they had a lot of laughs. I hadn't seen Char in a long time but I thought of her often and knew we would stay friends for ever. Char had a love for everyone and you knew that the minute you met her. She will be missed.
