“ Fifty years ago I moved into this new neighborhood in Canton. Shortly thereafter I met most of the people who moved in on Lowell. During a monster snowstorm that stranded us for days - the men got together and walked to Meijers with sleds then brought supplies back to many of us. The next summer I met Dave and Gail and ended up being friends with both of them. Over the years we shared neighborhood picnics, Halloween parties for the kids and we all bought fireworks for the July 4th Celebrations. Our neighborhood also had Christmas decorating contests for many years. Our kids played together in the summer as the Mom's sat around watching them and drinking Mighty Fine Lemonade with our feet in a kiddie waiting pool. It was idyllic and I am so thankful I experienced this. As we all got older, we would sit around in each other's yards talking about current events and gossiping and just chatting. Gail and I walked our dogs together and shared our lives good and bad for years. I would sit in their backyard discussing the weather and politics with Dave for years laughing at news stories. Gail and I loved to share our Christian beliefs since we came from different backgrounds always learning from each other. I will miss her dearly. She was my oldest and closest friend.
